

In the Circle of Light

Storyline:

This story shares cozy campfire memories that I have made with my own children. It evokes the warm, safe feeling you feel in the glow of a campfire. One night, we weren't the only ones that thought it was an awfully nice place to be. We had all kinds of cats, a dog, even a goat on the foot of one reclining lawn chair and a Canada goose gosling on the foot of another!

Lesson:

The circle of light is like God's love. Without really knowing why, we feel safe and loved when we walk in His ways. The dark can be an awfully scary place - and so can this world. But in the light of God we can find strength and solace and He will show us the way.

"I have come into the world as a light, so that no one who believes in me should stay in darkness." John 12:46
